MOTHER ARRESTED; BOYS THE CAUSE

Is Accused of Having Tried to Abandon Them—Arrested at Station.

A woman giving her name as Mrs. J. B. Walters, is being held by officers on a warrant issued by Justice E. B. McClintock, charging her with deserting her two children, Cecil, aged 6, and Beryl, aged 10. A man who gives his name as J. B. Walters, who was with her when she was arrested, is also being detained, but no formal charge has been preferred against him.

Five weeks ago the woman went to Mrs. Nettie Van Epps, No. 203 Nevada street, representing herself to be in need of work. Mrs. Van Epps conducted a rooming house with a dining room in connection. An arrangement was made by which Mrs. Walters took charge of the dining room service, the revenue of which was to be hers. Mrs. Van Epps leading her every encouragement. Arrangements were also made for Mrs. Walters to stay at the Van Epps home, with her two children.

A few days later, a man appeared upon the scene. The woman said he was her husband. Thursday, between 11 and 12 o'clock while Mrs. Van Epps was shopping in the city, the woman left without notice. Her two children remained. Mrs. Van Epps heard nothing of the mother, until she learned Friday morning that the woman had been arrested by a policeman on the charge of deserting her children.

Some days ago Mrs. Walters went to the proprietor of the West hotel, on St. Louis street, and asked for permission to leave the children at the hotel while she went on a trip to Colorado, which was agreed to at first, but on second consideration, the proprietor refused and says that a note was addressed to Mrs. Walters telling her that he could not keep the children.

Friday morning a suitcase and the following note were received from Mrs. Walters by the proprietor of the West hotel:

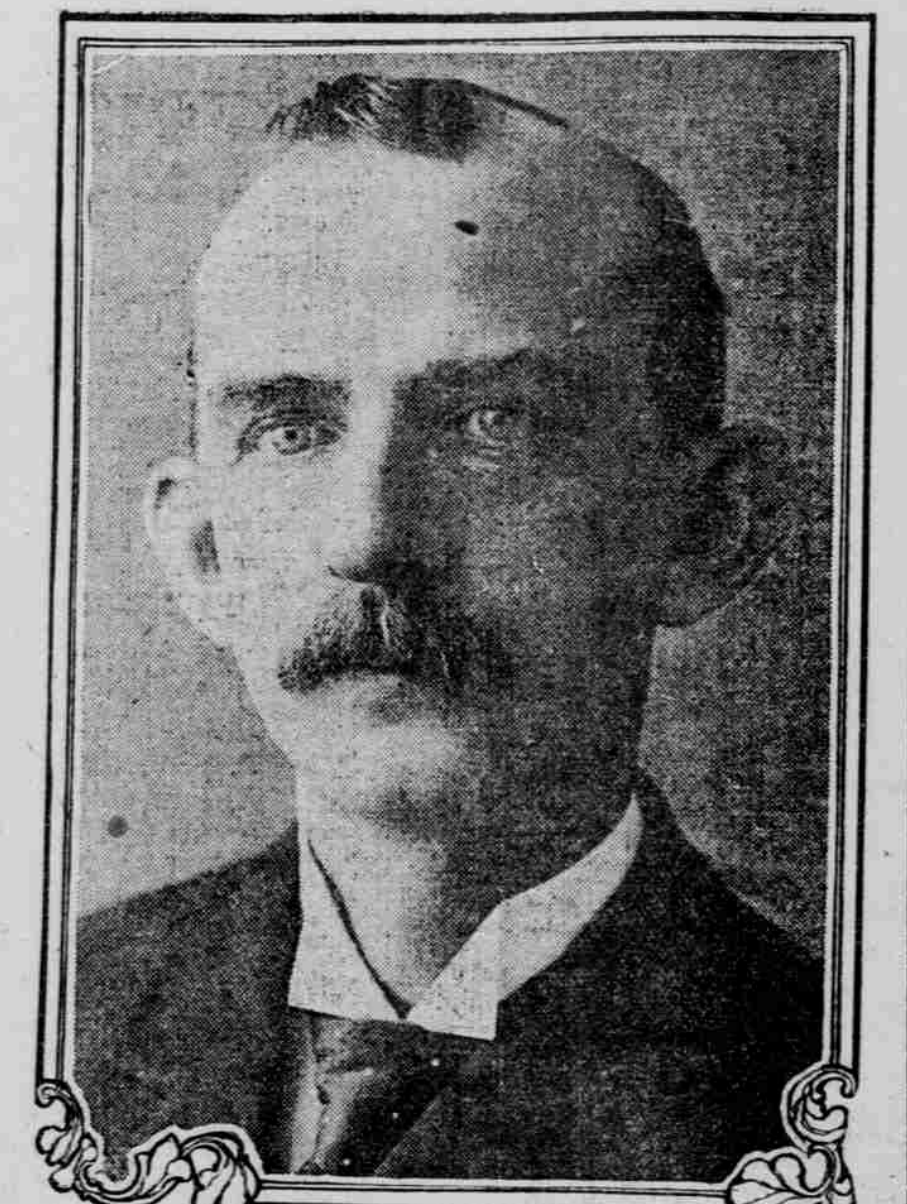

"I suppose the boys found you all right. I was so busy that I did not have time to come down with them, but am sending their suitcase with this note.

"I will be away 10 days or two weeks, as I told you; as court is in session there now, which is the reason of my great hurry, and don't let the boys make you too much work—just make place to sleep and so they don't go hungry is all I ask of you, and I will gladly pay the bill. I hate to leave them but can't do otherwise, and I am sure you will take care of them all right.

"I will write you as soon as I get there and will be anxious to hear how the boys are getting along.

"Tell them goodbye again for me, and tell Beryl mamma said for him to look after Cecil until I get back. My mother's address is Mrs. E. A. Arnold, 1426 East Monroe street, Phoenix, if any thing should happen when I'm away, but I trust nothing will, and I'll get back just as soon as I possibly can.

Will Study Western Political Conditions

SENATOR MURRAY CRANE OF MASSACHUSETTS, who will start a tour of the west, at the suggestion of president Taft, in order to get a line on political conditions. He will go as far as Seattle, Washington, and on his return will make a report to the president. Mr. Taft has the greatest confidence in Crane's political sagacity and discretion.

HAMON FLATLY DENIES CHARGES

Thanking you for your kindness, I am yours, under great obligations, "Mrs. Walters."

Mrs. Walters was arrested by officer Hord, of the police force at the union station Friday morning, after the departure of the train for Albuquerque, and sent to police headquarters. The man, giving his name as J. B. Walters, accompanied them to headquarters, where the case was transferred to the court of justice McClintock.

The officer says that he asked the woman if her name was Mrs. Walters, and that she replied it was not. Asked what her name was, he says, she replied, "Mrs. Rouse." The man stated that his name was J. B. Walters.

"I hope you will soon get through with this," said the man to officer Hord, "as it is very embarrassing to my wife."

"If your name is Walters and her name is Rouse, how can she be your wife?" the officer asked.

"She was excited when she said that," the man replied. The warrant for the woman's arrest read: "Mrs. J. B. Walters."

HAMON FLATLY DENIES CHARGES

he would not make any statement except in response to categorical questions. The following questions in an interview were then put to him:

"Did you offer a bribe to senator Gore?"

"I did not."

"Did you offer to give him an interest in the McMurray contracts?"

"I did not."

"Did you offer to bribe Creager?"

"I did not."

"Did you offer him an interest in the McMurray contracts?"

"I did not."

"Did you mention to senator Gore or to any one else that vice president Sherman was interested in the approval of the McMurray contracts?"

"I never mentioned such a thing to anyone."

"Did you say senator Curtis was interested in the McMurray contracts?"

"I did not."

"Are you yourself interested in the approval of McMurray's contracts?"

"I am not."

Mr. Hamon declined to answer other questions, saying he expected to appear before the committee when he would tell all he knew.

Sherman's Statement.

Big Moose, N. Y., Aug. 5.—Vice president James S. Sherman issued the following statement last night concerning the charges made by senator Gore at Muskogee yesterday:

"The story that comes to me about the charge made by senator Gore at Muskogee today is absolutely without the slightest shadow of foundation."

"Mr. Sherman today made another statement. He said:

"I never heard my name mentioned in connection with the contracts which were the subject of senator Gore's testimony brought out in the Indian land contract investigation at Muskogee. I never had any interest of any kind in any Indian contracts other than the interest I have had for years in the welfare of the Indians and which I shall

Offices

For Rent In New Herald Building

Janitor service is furnished together with all the incidental requirements that help to make an office building more comfortable than the ordinary office can be without these requisites.

LOCATION—located in the very heart of the business center where all street cars pass its doors, well advertised, large signs on all sides of the building, and immense electric signs on tower show day and night where The Herald Building can be found. This one feature is worth money to any business man, to be in a building that can be located without the assistance of a city directory and one or two policemen.

REMEMBER, while you know where your office is located, strangers and others must find it. Therefore it is good policy to be where you can be found when people want to do business with you. Now-a-days the average person will not hunt long, he will do business elsewhere.
